

TriGeo Wins SC Magazine Readers' Trust Award For Second Consecutive Year

TriGeo Security Information Manager Named Best Event Management Solution in 2008

POST FALLS, Idaho (April 9, 2008) — TriGeo Network Security, the leading provider of security information and event management (SIEM) technology for mid-market enterprises, just won SC Magazine's prestigious Readers' Trust Award for Best Event Management Solution for the second year in a row. This award win comes just two days after TriGeo was named the #1 technology innovator on Bank Technology News' FutureNow List.

The SC Magazine awards honor the best solutions, services and professionals while recognizing achievement and technical excellence in the information security industry. TriGeo was selected from more than 600 entries in 30 categories – making 2008 the most competitive year since the awards were launched 11 years ago.

"TriGeo represents an example of the security industry's best in class," said SC Magazine Editor Illena Armstrong. "By voting TriGeo's Security Information Manager as Best Event Management Solution, our readers are attesting to the high regard they hold for TriGeo."

"Winning this award two years in a row from the people who matter most – those who rely on our technology to protect their companies – is true validation that our solution is setting the standard for SIEM excellence," said Michelle Dickman, president of TriGeo Network Security. "We're honored to receive this award, and hope that our continued commitment to technology innovation and customer satisfaction will earn more votes from SC Magazine readers, every year."

TriGeo was the first SIEM company to identify and adapt to the security and compliance needs of mid-market organizations with a solution that proactively monitors and blocks anomalous network activity in real time. The solution comes stocked with more than 240 pre-built reports for compliance and network analysis, with prices starting below $20,000. TriGeo has hundreds of customers across key vertical markets including financial services, healthcare, government, utility, retail and media/entertainment.
